Dear Mr Garrison

I am always glad to see you. &
the often the better.

My only fear was that you might because the Explicit
too much in their
stiff-necked & hard-
hearted cause.

My speech contains the points of the Admiralty, the Chancery of the Lord

Cant^l - & the Minister to London; &
to my mind, it is important that England should not be allowed to question or disprove the point. Then she knows that we are agreed & are in earnest, there

will be an early settlement.

On coming at Liverpool while that we have lost ground
though a serious dis-

card among ampu-
per. This is the deplured. The large

settlement is delayed

the more our people will become unquiet.

is Tripleable.

Ever sincerely,

Charles Sumner
